Cookie Policy

We use "cookies" to help us gather and store information about visitors to our websites.

Cookies are small files containing letters and numbers that are placed on your device (computer, handheld, etc.) when you visit a website. We use cookies to enable you to use this website and its functionalities. These cookies are necessary if you want to use the website or a specific functionality. We use cookies to optimize the performance of our website and to enhance your website experience (performance cookies). We also use cookies to better understand our website visitors, allowing us to improve our website, products, services and marketing efforts (analysis cookies).

In accordance with the applicable law, we will only place performance and analysis cookies if you have allowed us to place our cookies by ticking the relevant box in the Cookie Information Message (initially) shown on our website. This message may reappear at intervals, for example when the relevant cookie is rejected or removed.

You may disable cookies via your browser settings. Please be aware that this may affect the strictly necessary cookies which are indispensable for the functioning of this website. Consequently, parts of the site may not function correctly if you disable (all) cookies. Furthermore, without cookies our ability to enhance your website experience will be limited.

For further information about cookies and how to manage them please go to www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.
